b. Short description:

Commemorating the German National Day (Day of German Unity) and the 30th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall, the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany invites to the “Deutschlandfest” on the 9th of November 2019. On the occasion, inter alia, the variety of German cuisine shall be exhibited by offering different food stalls. For that, the Embassy is currently looking for interested micro enterprises, whose range of products can contribute to the display of the versatile German culture e.g. vendors of traditional German cuisine, but not excluding bakeries, baristas etc.

The German embassy offers a complimentary platform to exhibit and sell the interested parties’ range of products on the “Deutschlandfest”.

Interested parties should have some sort of connection to either the Federal Republic of Germany or the German Embassy in Pretoria. Yet, suitability provided, this call for application is not only directed at German enterprises or enterprises led by Germans living in South Africa.

Furthermore, interested parties should be able to adequately cater to an anticipated 2.500 visitors. However, the Embassy cannot guarantee successful sales. Interested parties are solely responsible for excess products. Furthermore, the Embassy cannot be held liable for loss of income, loss due to theft or any other failure what so ever.

The “Deutschlandfest“ will take place in form of a “Market”. Therefore, interested parties must be able to provide staff for the set-up of the stall on the previous day (8th of November 2019) and for the supervision of the stall on the 9th of November from 11am till approx. 17pm. The cost of the manning of the stall, including food, refreshments and transport is also to be organized and financed by the interested party itself.

Interested parties are kindly asked to submit a proof of eligibility stating the following:

- The organization’s name and contact person
- Their range of products
- Their connection to Germany or the German embassy in Pretoria
- The prospective added value of their products for the event
- The space needed for their stall and the equipment they will bring
- A comprehensive price list of the products to be sold at the “Deutschlandfest”

a. Deadline for the application

The proof of eligibility must be submitted before the 20th September 2019.

b. The proof of eligibility has to be submitted via E-Mail to info@pret.diplo.de. Please use “Deutschlandfest 2019” as subject.

c. The proof of eligibility has to be submitted in German or English and should not exceed 500KB.

5. The German Embassy can't compensate interested parties for the creation of the proof of eligibility.

6. The Embassy asks for your understanding that the room available is limited and therefore not all those suitable might be taken into consideration.

7. Legal action may not be taken.
